

OCTOBER 2022 ROADMAP

RISK MANAGEMENT

SOCIAL

Talk about wire fraud using social

As you know probably know, October is National Cybersecurity Awareness Month. Make sure to use this as a reminder to evaluate all your digital security measures and practices internally and make sure you're talking to your customers and partners about the importance of risk management, wire fraud safety and other related issues externally, too!

RESOURCE

Check out this new FNF webpage

As part of our commitment to provide all the information and resources our agents need, we are excited to unveil a new Risk Management resource page on our FNF National Agency website. Here you'll find materials on cybersecurity, wire fraud, diversion schemes, mortgage payoff scams and more.

VIDEO

What to know about mortgage payoff fraud

FNF is here to help protect you against all different kinds of wire fraud schemes, including especially devastating mortgage payoff scams. As part of a special series, FNF senior vice president Michele Green recorded this video to about everything to know about this issue.

PODCAST

FNF UNPLUGGED: Cybersecurity 101

Want to know about cyber insurance and how it could fit your agency's needs? Listen to this FNF UNPLUGGED podcast episode with FNF's Chuck Cain and Peter Riebling of Riebling Insurance, which is one of our trusted Solution Partners.

PUBLICATION

Tips to help you fight ransomware every day

A ransomware attack can be the start of many bad things for your computer and the company's entire IT system. Check out the latest issue of FNF's Fraud Insights newsletter for a tip list of things you need to be doing to help keep your employees and technology secure.

